New from WOLF-Garten

Comfortable “Premium Plus” Garden Shears

Excellent Power Application

A large garden with ornamental and vegetable plants requires the right horticultural expertise – and the correct garden shears to make trimming jobs easy. For instance, the new “Premium Plus” from WOLF-Garten – an easy-to-use and robust set of garden shears with excellent power application for regular use even in larger landscaped gardens.

The “Premium Plus” is available as a twin-blade model or with anvil technology with coated zinc cast anvil. The angled cutter is set at about 30 degrees. Additionally, there are two plastic inserts on the upper and lower handle to facilitate targeted power application using the inner part of the hand on the upper handle and ergonomic working by sliding the fingers on the lower handle.

The adjustable blade tension and precision sharpened as well as non-stick coated blades are ideal for performing unlimited trimming and pruning jobs.

The new “Premium Plus” garden shears from WOLF-Garten are available in the handle size: L and are suitable for left- and right-handed use. They are available from garden centres, DIY and specialist stores for € 23.99.
