New from WOLF-Garten

Garden shears simple and effective

Basic Plus – Basic model of a new generation of shears

A perfect basic set of shears for the garden, balcony and patio owner is now available from WOLF-Garten. What makes the Basic Plus so special is the integrated, captive spring. It makes sure that even after years of use the mechanics function with little wear and tear.

House plants or even lavender on the patio or the lilac need to be pruned to return them to their former glory. The dual-bladed shears “Basic Plus” are just right for the job. The dual-component handles, equipped with a soft inlay on top, prevent the hand from slipping and ensure a comfortable transfer of power. In this way, it cuts well and practically everything the beginner and hobby gardener comes across, soon making the shears irreplaceable.

The new garden shears are available in garden centres, DIY stores and trade retailers for € 11.99.
